THE circular seal of Mount Saint Mary's College, designed by Baker of London, has the name of the college around the shield. The four divisions of the circle form a cross with the date of the foundation, 1925, in the center. Three angel wings at the left signify the city of Los Angeles, while the fleur de lis represents the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet who were established in France in 1650. At the top is a lily surrounded by thorns—Mary the Immaculate Conception. Below the date is an open book containing the motto of the college — Deus Illuminatio Meo. "God my light." The seal symbolizes Mount Saint Mary's College, founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in the city of the angels and dedicated to the Immaculate Virgin Mother.

To send greetings to the students of

"MOUNT SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE"

is a joy and a challenge. It is a challenge because the projection into the future of the potentialities of education at Mount Saint Mary's draws heavily upon the capacity of imagination.

Your training cultivates the foundations of womanhood that are in such marked contrast to the declining standards resulting from a Godless education.

Therefore, as leaders and examples of a truly religious womanhood you will be a challenge to the community.

The Seniors . . .

THE most important day on each college senior's calendar is "Commencement Day." This term is a profound one, deep-rooted in four years of preparation "to enter the arena to take part in the battle" as Our Holy Father has said in his Directives for the Woman of Today. You commence to live life, not passively but actively. Each alumna, in accordance with the will of His Holiness, is to participate in the impregnation of public life with the spirit of Christ to as large an extent as her state in life will permit. The wife and mother is to "courageously accept her new duties" and enter into the activities which protect the integrity of Christian homes, further the welfare of all children, and influence legislation and administration when God-given rights are being undermined. Among the students who receive their bachelors degrees this year are some who may have the leisure to prepare themselves in a particular way to engage in the front-line battle of public life, and to fit themselves to direct their energies to preserve the way of life guaranteed to us by our Christian constitution and government. The Papal Directives for the Woman of Today state: "To live today in our great cities without loss of faith and purity requires no less heroism than was needed in the days of bloody persecution." To reinforce the prayer and sacrifices of those in the midst of the social melee will be those members of the Class of Fifty-one, who by devoting themselves to prayer and training of youth, will obtain graces for all of you, and send forth recruits to fill your ranks. I can give you no better challenge than the words of Pope Pius XII, "Be present everywhere for the Faith, for Christ, in every way and to the utmost possible limit, whenever vital interests are at stake, whenever laws bearing on the worship of God, marriage, the family, the school, and the social order are proposed and discussed." My prayer will accompany you in the pursuit of these noble ideals.

MOTHER AGNES MARIE

To the Graduates of 1951 . . .

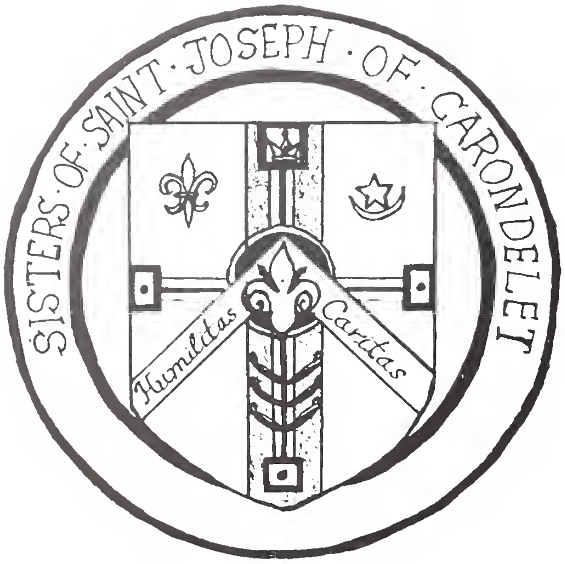
As you leave your college days behind you to commence the work for which your Alma Mater has been preparing you for the past four years, you do well to pause for a moment to reflect on the obligations that are yours as Catholic women, graduates of a Catholic college. The choice of theme for your yearbook — The Papal Directives for the Woman of Today — is indeed a happy one.

The Divine Plan Maker had ordained that you should go forth to battle for Him at a time when the forces of evil seem to be in the ascendency. Generations of graduates have been told that the world needs them and their influence, but never before in the history of civilization has this been so true as it is today. Our country, our Church, the whole world needs valiant women, generous of spirit and steadfast of purpose, ready and willing to submerge their own petty selfish desires so that Christ and His cause may triumph over the powerful forces of secularism and atheism.

Great courage is needed and deep faith. Each one of you is called to be an apostle, willing, if need be, to give all, even life itself, so that each member of the Mystical Body of Christ may enjoy the freedom "wherewith Christ has made him free." The weapons of good example, prayer, and self-sacrifice are yours. With Saint Paul, you, too, "can do all things in Him Who strengtheneth you."

Our prayers follow you as you go. May God bless you always and may Mary, His loving Mother and ours, be ever close to you to guard you and to keep you loyal to Her Son and His Church.

SISTER ROSE DE LIMA



The coat of arms of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Carondelet richly symbolizes the origin and identification of this congregation. The azure field represents the protection of heaven over these members of Christ's Mystical Body vowed in a special way to that King whose crown azure is seen occupying the place of highest honor. The circle of black centered at the transverse beams of the cross symbolizes death to the world in order to possess the cross of Christ alone. The carpenter's square, symbol of the life of active work in imitation of their patron, Saint Joseph, bears the words, "Humility and Charity," virtues that are at the foundation and fruition of all their labors. The lily in full bloom symbolizes their vow of chastity. The fleur-de-lis refers to their origin in France and the crescent to America, where so many work today; the five-pointed star, or mullet, stands for the dignity, the glory, and the grandeur of this land and its Immaculate Protector, Mary.

Kathryn Ashe

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Welfare
Minor—Economics
Brentwood

Auburn-haired Kathy has served SWES as social chairman and secretary, and the Community Chest in its annual drives. In Tau Alpha Zeta she held the office of secretary and of vice president. Her college memories include football teams—Notre Dame, Santa Clara, or Ohio State—vacations as Lake Tahoe or Rochester, boating, water-skiing, and a certain midnight.

Rose Marie Bachand

Bachelor of Music
Major—Music Theory
Minor—Applied Music
Los Angeles

When Rosie was not too busy in the lounge polishing her bridge game, she frequented the music rooms—playing piano or bass violin for the string ensemble or contributing a soprano to the Choral Group. Extra-curricular activities featured Gamma Sigma Phi, shearing Doris' hair, being conspicuous beside ski-tows, and fiance, Louis Thomas.

Lupita Louise Bernstein

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Spanish
Minor—History
Los Angeles

Pete divides her executive talents between the student government—first secretary, then president—and the International Language Club as vice president and president. She has also been active in Tri Rho. Her extra-curricular interests centered upon sports and her trip to Mexico — "terrific place." After graduation Pete plans to teach — yes, Spanish.

Geraldine Patricia Biggs

Bachelor of Music
Major—Music Theory
Minor—Philosophy
Hollywood

Gerry's offices bespeak her interests—secretary, vice prefect, and chairman of the publicity committee of Our Lady's Sodality, social secretary of the International Language Club, treasurer of the music club, and secretary of Pi Delta Phi. Still Gerry finds time for music, and for adding to her scrapbooks and to her hope chest.

Doris Bursk

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—English, Speech, History, Education
Elementary Credentials
Los Angeles

Brentwood Elementary School with necessary lesson plans took up so much time that Dee is still learning to drive. In her less vigorous moments she writes long, long letters, draws, and knits. She owes close-cropped honey-colored coiffure to Rosie's shears.

Mary Alice Connors

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Economics
Minor—Business Administration
San Diego

Mac, the straight-faced one of "Carpino's Alley" made history as "The Backward Girl of the Steinway." In spite of long hours of practice to maintain her position in the music world, she found time for several other activities—historian and treasurer of SWES, vice president of International Language Club, Press Club, secretary of the junior class, vice president of the senior class, editor of the handbook, upper-division representative at large and circulation manager of The Mount.

Patricia Cummings

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—Education, Music, English
Westwood

Want a violinist, camp counsellor, teacher? Call on Pat. Also she paints china, or posters, swims or life-saves, and whips up last-minute assignments. Brentwood Elementary School, the cabin in Wrightwood, Friday afternoon concerts at the Philharmonic, chats in the library, added to chairmanship of the Sodality publicity committee, Junior Dance committee, membership in Tau Alpha Zeta, Tri Rho and the music club are part of Pat's store of memories.

Mary Ann Cunningham

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Home Economics
Minor—Business Administration
Lancaster, California

Mary Ann was a member of the International Language club, SWES, Red Cross, and Home Economics Club as vice president. She is a prolific and proficient knitter of argyles — even winning blue ribbons. Her frequent presence in bridal parties has given her one of the finest collections of bridesmaid dresses on campus.

Rita Teodosia Custado

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Sciences
Minor—Spanish
San Diego

"Carpino's Alley's" athlete — Ojai tennis tournament, ping-pong, swimming, tennis instructor—Rita has been active in Tri Rho, International Language Club — both as president and vice president — SWES, and WRA — as treasurer and vice president. In demand for informal entertainment Rita would oblige with a spritely Charleston.

Margaret Mary Delavigne

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—Education, History,
English, Speech
Los Angeles

Maggie's interests were with Tri-Rho club and Gamma Sigma Phi. She made a memorable appearance as half of the siamese twins—with Joan Hogan. Maggie knits, and bowls, and water-skis totally submerged but for the head. Some people may not have heard her remark: "I am going to San Francisco this summer."

Emily Catherine Doll

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Welfare
Minor—Economics
Glendale

Emil has been vice president of the boarder council, settlement chairman and secretary of SWES, chairman of the Community Chest on campus, and recording secretary and president both junior and senior year of Tau Alpha Zeta. The Cal-Poly Social Welfare Conference, New Years 1950, Ohio State, and a two-week campus she finds unforgettable. A distributor of nicknames, Emil's call is "Has the mail come yet?"

Rose Mary Esquibel

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Spanish
Minor—English
Long Beach

With camera and tripod in tow, Rose Mary cheerfully attended every Mount function worthy of record on celluloid. An ex-Air Corps WAC in photo-intelligence she was active on campus — Sodality, Parnassians, and International Language Club. She is an ardent fan of the Los Angeles Philharmonic and a deft seamstress. At any time one finds Rose Mary where bees are not.

Catherine Frances Ford

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Music
Minor—Chemistry
San Jose

Catherine was always collecting money — treasurer for the Press Club and for the Senior Class, and chief patron-bringer for the annual play. Her activities ranged from eating, sleeping, swimming, and knitting through reading and listening to Who-dun-its on the radio to ushering at the Philharmonic. The cross she bore for senior year was that of copy-editor for The Mount.

Frances Ann Formaneck

Bachelor of Arts
Major—History
Minor—English
Alhambra

Frances has been editor of The View, associate editor of The Mount, class treasurer, sophomore year, and vice president, junior year. She has been active in Eusebians, Tri Rho, and the Press Club. Her college memories include "Carpino's Alley" and practice teaching at Brentwood. A girl of simple tastes, sleeping was her favorite pastime.

Eileen Giffen

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—English, Speech, History, Education
Elementary Credential
Ventura

Though she was a transfer student from Immaculate Heart and University of Southern California, Eileen insists that there is no place like the Mount. She has been active in Our Lady's Sodality, Tri Rho, and the Red Cross. Playing the piano and the organ and dancing head her list of favorite pastimes In public speaking class she debated eloquently for co-education in Catholic colleges.

Mary Ann Gottschalk

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Mathematics and Business Administration
Los Angeles

Quiet and conscientious Mary Ann has been an active Sodalist, and a member of the WRA and Kappa Theta Mu. She found time for both classes and a job—mornings she whiled away as a bookkeeper. She likes to sew and to bowl. Her usual inquiry has been, "Where's Stella?"

Mary Ellen Gray

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Chemistry
Minor—Mathematics
Los Angeles

Mary Ellen of the freckles, smile, and rapid speech divided her membership between Kappa Theta Mu — president her senior year — and the Sodality — chairman of Our Lady's Committee and Our Lady of Fatima's chief agent on campus. Mary Ellen proves again that a scientific education is not of necessity a narrow one with her prominence in Sodality and sports and her enthusiasm for dancing.

Theresa Reiko Hatsumi

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—French
Tokyo, Japan

Theresa, the Mount's representative from the Orient, has suffered from absent mindedness and teasing for her Oxford accent. Her honors range from fourth place in the class abacus contest in primary school, to first place in The Cabrini Literary Contest for Los Angeles Catholic college students. Piano and flower arrangement are her hobbies; her probable future occupation will be in the Department of Foreign Affairs of the Japanese Government.

Huguette Gilberte Hery

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Welfare
Minor—Physical Education
Santa Monica

Community Chest, Red Cross, WRA, SWES as settlement chairman, Pi Delta Phi as president, and Tau Alpha Zeta as pledge mistress and vice president were centers of Huguette's activities. She remembers tennis, volleyball, early morning showers, "coffee time," and Phoenix in August and February, and is memorable for, among other things, her '41 Chevvy with the short in the horn.

Joan Herold Hogan

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Home Economics
Minor—Philosophy
Santa Monica

A February wedding was the outstanding event of Joan's senior year; closely associated with it are memories of the Bel-Air Bay Club —"Where I first met Bill." Knitting, crocheting, learning to ski and to drive are some of Joan's pastimes. On campus she was active in the Home Economics Club and in Gamma Sigma Phi, social secretary. She has said, "Poison comes in small packages, too."

Mary Jeanne Hoxmeier

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Mathematics
Minor—Philosophy
Los Angeles

Mary Jeanne's engagement ring has not kept her from planning to teach after graduation. During her years at the Mount she was an active sodalist—co-chairman of the apostolic committee her junior year, prefect, her senior — and a sports' enthusiast — headed volleyball division of the W.R.A. her junior year. She also finds time to knit socks for Larry.

Huguette

"Joanie"

Mary Jeanne

Evelyn Mary Lou Mary

Evelyn Sachiko Ishida

Bachelor of Arts
Major—History
Minor—English
Honolulu, Hawaii

The coffee bar has been Evelyn's station — part of the responsibilities of an active Eusebian; senior year she served the Eusebians as president, and was active in Tri Rho. Evelyn says she loves animals and reading — the latter is somewhat limited by her habit of falling asleep at 9:30 p.m.

Mary Lou Jandro

Bachelor of Science
Major—Bacteriology
Minor—Cancer Research
Hollywood

Mary Lou has been prominent in the Eusebians, Parnassians, Choral group, Music, Science, and Language clubs; she served as secretary for the Science club. Until she acquires those 3,000 acres in Oregon to raise cattle or sheep, she contents herself at her brother's ranch in Carlsbad. Frequent between-meal snacks do not affect her slim figure. Friends will miss hearing her say, "Next semester I am going to study."

Mary Janney

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Science
Minor—Philosophy
Culver City

Mary served the student body as publicity chairman and Gamma Sigma Phi sorority as secretary and pledge-mistress. She was also active in Our Lady's Sodality, SWES, and NFCCS, being vice president of the Los Angeles region and a representative to the Chicago national convention. Mary is graciously cooperative in any activity from clean-up committees to impromptu entertainments — an indispensable to "Ye old-time Quartette."

Claire Kassler

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Welfare
Minor—Economics
Santa Monica

Claire's activities on campus include SWES as president and interracial committee chairman, and class treasurer junior year. She was also vice president of Tau Alpha Zeta and a member of NFCCS serving as chairman of the Overseas Service Program. Claire consumes countless cups of coffee — both sugar and cream — and suffers from unpunctuality on dates and blindness to any object moving or stationary beyond a radius of eighteen inches.

Eleanor Elizabeth Kelliher

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Physical Education
Minor—Philosophy
Chicago, Illinois

Eleanor, the most "senior" senior, has been active in SWES, the Sodality, Tri-Rho, Lifeguards' club, and as president of WRA and chairman of the WRA of the Colleges of Southern California. Eleanor spent two and a half years in the U. S. Marine Corps — Washington D.C. to Hawaii — and two months in Europe on the Holy Year pilgrimage—twelve countries. At, not in, the pool is her favorite haunt of study.

Helen Maxine Keriozolas

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Political Science
Minor—History
Yuma, Arizona

Helen has been a member of Tau Alpha Zeta sorority and active among the Eusebians — tending the coffee-bar and speaking at their discussion meetings. Several of her book reviews have appeared in The View. She enjoys sleeping and reading; one of her favorite books is Claudel's Satin Slipper. Helen has spoken of taking the law test at Loyola University.

Evelyn Marie Kraemer

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Sociology
Minor—Physical Education
Placentia, California

Though she was a transfer student from St. Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana, Evy found no difficulty in fitting into the Mount. She has been active in the International Language Club, Sodality, SWES, as vice president, recording secretary of the WRA, and secretary of the Co-ordinating Council of the WRA of Southern California Colleges. She likes Newport Beach, volleyball and "Carpino's Alley." Evy's was the heartiest laugh there.

Dorothy Shevlin Lady

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Education, Home Economics
Minor—Philosophy
Los Angeles

Dorothy was not too active as the vice president of the Home Economics club, or regional historian of the Home Economics Association, member of Tri Rho, or recording secretary of Gamma Sigma Phi to become Mrs. Lady at Thanksgiving. Her off-campus activities are collecting pennies and souvenirs and, since November, home-making with emphasis on the joys of dish washing. In spite of Margaret's constant attention to that detail, Dorothy will go lipstickless.

Angela Catherine McDonald

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Mathematics
Minor—English
Los Angeles

Being president, first of the junior and now of the senior class, Angie found no spare time for campus organizations. Her hobbies are sewing — she makes her clothes — and dancing, especially the Lambda Nu. She feels, and we hope, that she'll never run out of talk about her "wonderful" summer in Europe. Hers is the disquieting remark: "Well, bully for you!"

Gloria Cecilia Mankiewicz

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Mathematics
Minor—Philosophy
Los Angeles

On campus Gloria was prominent in Our Lady's Sodality and the Tri Rho Club; she practiced teaching at both Brentwood Elementary and Franklin Schools. Gloria makes her own clothes and produces dozens of enviable argyles and other knitted things.

Eloise Martinez

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Chemistry
Minor—Philosophy
Los Angeles

Eloise merits special mention as the chemistry student most often given first aid; she has acid-magnetism. A charter member of the honorary chemistry society, a member of Kappa Theta Mu, and of Gamma Sigma Phi — she was president of Gammas her senior year — she also plays bridge. She is among the first possessors of a tan each spring; some of her happiest summers have been spent at Newport.

Jane Donnelly Melanson

Bachelor of Science
Major—Bacteriology
Minor—Cancer Research
Los Angeles

Janie has been a member of the International Language Club, Kappa Theta Mu, and Tau Alpha Zeta's vice president. She was married in August and two weeks later was back at the Mount. Besides her summer wedding she'll remember football games and parties and her charming charges, the rats and mice in the lab.

Rosemary "Uzo" Rita

Rosemary Mikulich

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Biological Science
Minor—Social Science
Las Vegas, Nevada

Rosemary was busy in Our Lady's Sodality, Kappa Theta Mu, and Tri Rho clubs. Dancing, hiking, and swimming head her list of things to do; she is "crazy" about her two nephews and niece. Next to graduation, the most memorable event of the year, she insists, was the cutting of her hair.

Uzoamaka Beatrice Moneke

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—Sociology
Nnewi, Nigeria, West Africa

Uzo's affiliations on campus were with the Sodality, International Language Club, SWES, Eusebians, and Parnassians, which she served as secretary-treasurer. She is memorable for her appearance in national costume during interracial week, her eagerness to aid in our understanding of her country, and her ability to read Chaucer aloud beautifully. She loves to sleep and to read—especially fiction. She will be Mrs. Benjamin Mbakwem in June.

Rita Gloria Murray

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—English, History, Education
Altadena

Rita Gloria, a member of the Press Club, Red Cross, Parnassians, and Tri-Rho, was treasurer and vice-president of the student-body and news and associate editor of The View. Her hometown, Chicago, dancing, dramatics, music, ushering at the Philharmonic, and knitting argyles she remembers among favorite things.

Kathleen O'Rourke

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—History. Philosophy
Westwood

Kathleen joins things and holds offices: Parnassians, Eusebians, Tau Alpha Zeta—treasurer—Tri-sorority chairman, Press Club—president —student council, class secretary—freshman year—class vice-president and president sophomore year, View staff—contributing and associate editor—and editor of The Mount. She writes metaphysical poetry, loves music—Dixie to Debussy—maple furniture, and hamburgers with onions, and has been nominated to "Who's Who Among College Students." Her characteristic cry: "Wait me!"

Winnifred Kathleen O'Connor

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Sciences
Minor—English
Klamath Falls, Oregon

Katy, the older O'Connor, has been active in Our Lady's Sodality, Parnassians, SWES, Tri-Rho, and Press Club. Hers was the doubtful honor of driving Goliath on his ill-favored last journey—Goliath perished but his occupants escaped serious injuries—with Katy sporting a lovely black eye and multi-colored bruises. She likes writing letters and keeping a daily diary.

Marilou O'Connor

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—Social Sciences, Philosophy
Klamath Falls, Oregon

Marilou is the busy person with time always for one more activity —Sodality, Eusebians, Press Club, Tri-Rho, Parnassians as president senior year, class secretary senior year, The Mount staff as make-up editor, student-body publicity chairman, and the engagement ring senior year. Next year she plans to work for a secondary credential. Marilou's "hobby" is Oregon: "Just —more weeks 'til vacation, then home!"

Kathleen "Katy" Marilou

Shirley Rita Susan

Shirley Mae Rawley

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Art
Minor—English, Philosophy
Los Angeles

Shirley, doubtless from consideration for the make-up of The Mount, prefers to reserve her newly acquired title of Mrs. Sardis Beauxbeaux for off-campus use. Affiliations did not affect her campus life; she has been vice-president and president of the Art Club, and active in the Sodality, WRA, Community Chest, and Red Cross. Her hobbies are sleeping and art.

Rita Ries

Bachelor of Science
Major—Nursing Education
Minor—Social Science
Los Angeles

Rita is a registered nurse of Queen of Angels College of Nursing, where she was senior class president and Sodality union prefect. Here at the Mount, she has been an active member of the Red Cross, Sodality, and Parnassians. Rita likes to knit and in a more vigorous vein, play tennis and ski.

Susan Gage Robertson

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—Philosophy
Westwood

Susan has been present among the Eusebians, the Parnassians, the Press club as vice president, and Gamma Sigma Phi as publicity chairman and vice president. She has also contributed to The View and to The Mount as a copy editor. A relaxed position is her favorite; from it she argues, plays bridge and reads. She becomes almost enthusiastic over El Greco, Botticelli, Mozart, the harpsichord, Elizabethan poetry, and "Winnie the Pooh."

Arlene Marian Russie

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Music, English
Minor—Philosophy
Seal Beach, California

On campus Arlene has been active in the International Language Club, Parnassians — vice president and president — and Music Club — vice president and president. She has also been representative to the Los Angeles Philharmonic All-College Forum, secretary this year under the name "Irene," courtesy proofreader of the Philharmonic magazine. Her hobbies are dancing, swimming, singing, and attending musical events and plays. Arlene has an enviable collection of eye-make up and the longest hair on campus.

Stella Maria Santa Cruz

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Spanish
Minor—Business Administration,
Political Science
Los Angeles

Stella has been busy with the International Language club, SWES, the Eusebians, the Parnassians, and Our Lady's Sodality. She is enthusiastic about baseball and long rides particularly with Edward and his crew soon after sunrise. Stella is remarkable for both her unassuming efficiency and her euphonious name.

Mary Margaret Schaefer

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—Philosophy
Westwood

Mary Margaret has been efficient as business manager of The Mount and as publicity chairman and treasurer of Gamma Sigma Phi and active in the Press club, the Eusebians, and the Parnassians. She is noted for being bridesmaid, love for bridge, Notre Dame, and San Francisco, especially its restaurants. She reads Angela Thirkell, Waugh, and Ivy Compton-Burnett. She has a great desire to see Jim's hooded emu, and to hex whoever addresses her as "Margaret Mary."

Rosemary "Gen" "Jackie"

Rosemary Elizabeth Schuler

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Social Welfare
Minor—Home Economics
Santa Monica

Although illness made her unable to graduate with her class, Rosemary had been active in the Red Cross, Community Chest, and SWES; twice she was treasurer of Tau Alpha Zeta. The Ohio State-Cal game, 1950, several appearances on television, the Arrowhead Yacht Club, and a portion of the Colombian Navy are high in her list of good things to remember. Her favorite occupations are modeling, dancing, sun bathing, shows, and bridge — "Need a fourth?"

Genevieve Weeger Smurda

Bachelor of Arts
Major—English
Minor—Philosophy
Los Angeles

Somewhere between home-making for John and baby-tending for Stephen, Gen has found time for the Press Club, Eusebians, Parnassians, and to be social chairman for the Mount. Her hobbies are tennis, swimming, photography, and reading — especially the poems of Lawrence Hope and Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Her characteristic remark is "Would you like to baby-sit?"

Jacqueline Stetler

Bachelor of Music
Major—Music
Minor—Latin
Pasadena

The Mount staff apologizes, but deadlines would not wait until Jackie's experiment with the sheared look was complete. Membership in the Sodality Council as publicity chairman, the International Language Club, Junior-Senior Prom committee, Choral group, Tri-Rho, Inter-American Union, and the Music Club as secretary and vice president, shows the diversity of Jackie's interests; she also plays the organ and sings for Father Ryder's Russian Choir. She'll never forget that night at the ballet a day too early.

Helen Margaret Szandy

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Music
Minor—English, Philosophy
General Elementary Credential
Los Angeles

Helen "Sunday" has the advantage of coming from a home conducted entirely in the Hungarian manner — she reads and speaks the language fluently. She loves her major — plays only classical music on the piano — practicing teaching techniques on two younger sisters, ice skating, and dancing. On campus Helen has been active in the choral group and in Tri Rho, Music, and Press Clubs.

Phyllis Marie Tukich

Bachelor of Arts
Major—Home Economics
Minor—Art
Los Angeles

Phyl, who originated in Chicago, includes counselling at summer camps, golf, and swimming among her favorite extra-curricular activities. At the Mount it was 'Spanish forever," with time for the Home Economics club, which she served as treasurer and as president, the Parnassians, as treasurer, and Tau Alpha Zeta sorority as social secretary.

Dolores Marie Welgoss

Bachelor of Arts
Major—History
Minor—Latin
Los Angeles

Choral group, sodality, Eusebians as secretary-treasurer, Tri-Rho club as vice president and president, The Mount staff as art editor, typing and being generally useful in the Registrar's office absorbed some of Dolores' energies. Her favorite pastimes include ping-pong, art, eating popcorn, occupying rocking chairs, and singing — she is an enthusiastic member of Father Ryder's Russian Choir.

Major—History
Minor—Biology
Honolulu, Hawaii

SWES, the International Language Club, Tri-Rho, and the Eusebians were Vera's on-campus affiliations. As is usual among practice teachers, she will never forget blithe mornings at Brentwood Elementary School. For her quieter moments Vera chooses musical comedy — attended preferably, or listened to from radio or records.

Anne Wong

Bachelor of Science
Major—Bacteriology
Minor—Cancer Research
Honolulu, Hawaii

Anne has successfully mixed science and English, having been editor of The View, president of the Press Club, and official chauffeur for the Cancer Research class, spending much of her time at St. Vincent's. She has even won an Interracial Week Essay award. Writing letters during class time, snapping Mount pictures, interviewing VIPS, dreaming of traveling occupy much of her time. Thoughtful, friendly, and cooperative, Anne with her quiet "Hey!" and Hawaiian accent is the Mount personified.

Marilyn Frances Yee

Bachelor of Arts
Group Major—History, Education,
English, Speech
Honolulu, Hawaii

Marilyn has been the honorary "Mrs." of Carpino's Alley — the children at Brentwood Elementary School feel all teachers ought to be married. Among Mount students she is known as "Off-key Marilyn Yee" of the loud voice and louder radio. For exercise of muscles she plays ping-pong and dances the hula — what would impromptu entertainment do without her? She has held the offices of publicity chairman for The Mount and circulation manager of The View.

Senior Nights Out

Seniors arrive at the Shrine and check programs before entering to see The Barber of Seville.

"Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us" . . . Holy Year Pilgrimage was February "Night Out" for Seniors.

A visit to Olvera Street filled with questions about curios discovered at the stalls which line the street.

A blazing fire, the center of interest at October Night Out, was further enhanced by group-singing.

Mammoth gnats and high tide highlighted the first senior night out at the party on Malibu beach . . . From sea level to the stratosphere marked the night at the opera, Barber of Seville, with Lily Pons . . . The movie Cyrano de Bergerac, and Melody Lane were destinations for a large group in December . . . The spaghetti dinner at Pat Cummings in January included good food and many jokes . . . The Holy Year Pilgrimage in February to Mary's Chapel, the Cathedral, and the Mission ended with a Chinese dinner . . . Opening night for The Enchanted at Pasadena Playhouse entertained seniors on March 29.

Guest Speakers

Americas No/ Problem
Another Vicious C

Floyd Covington, F. H. A. representative — "In reality everyone we meet is our neighbor."

Arnold Lunn, British author, lecturer— "Punishment for slack Catholicism is Communism."

Harold Fitzgerald, English instructor and Christopher— "The Christopher movement is the Catholic Church's particular answer to today's anti-Christian 'isms'."

Rev. Cornelius O'Mara, S. J. retreat master, member of Jesuit Mission band—"If you remember your last end, you'll never commit sin . . . fear of God is the beginning of wisdom."

Dr. Laurence Nelson, Professor of English at Redlands University— "While most people in America can read, half of them do not."

John Metcalf, lecturer on world affairs—"Unless we all stand united in the sight of God and in the interests of freedom, unless we do this, all we have and all we hope for will crumble into dust."

Emmet Lavery, Catholic playwright—There's too much separatism, too much vocationalism. A well-rounded man is well-rounded in many fields."

Rev. Henry Alker, pastor, Resurrection parish—"I hope to leave with you the proper, Christ-like grateful attitude toward the underprivileged."

Frank Scully, Catholic writer—"America offers more opportunity for education than can be found anywhere else, but she also destroys any possibility for advancement among minority groups by her smug, prejudiced attitudes."

Bishop Joseph B. Cialeo, O.P., Missionary Bishop of Pakistan—"Every one of you must be a missionary."

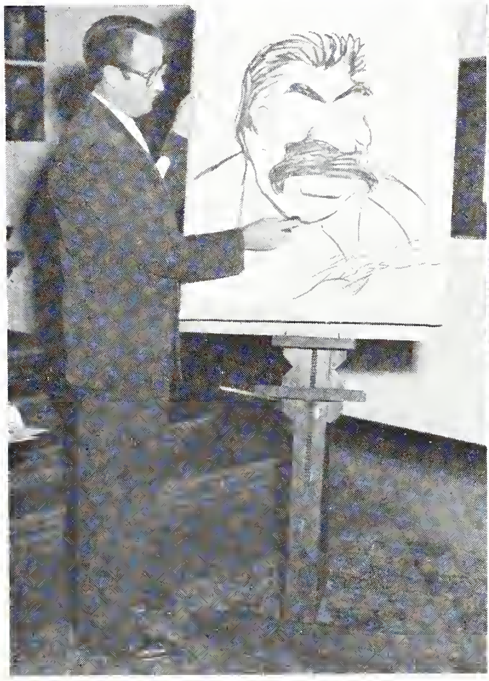
Robert Ryan, movie actor—"Any emotion that you show in motion pictures has to be genuine; it shows in your eyes."

Dick Hill (far left), Red Cross representative—"In case of an atomic attack, lie down, cover your eyes and count to ten; if you are still alive, you are going to be all right."

Bruce Russell, Times editorial cartoonist—"Ideas in drawing are like the pieces of a puzzle which have to be put together so they are in harmony with one another."

Mary Lanigan Healy, apostolic Catholic laywoman, writer—"If you shout from the house-tops the noise of the street will drown you out, but inside the four walls of a home you can whisper and be heard."

Joseph Dever, Catholic writer and critic—"The only way we can save this cockeyed world is by practicing, not just thinking and talking about Christian charity in our own lives . . . Christian attitude of mind is generosity of mind."



Boarders

Members of the Boarder Council meet in the parlor. From left to right,

Lost Rabbit Keeps Police A - Hopping

M.S.M.C., March 9, 1951: A lost rabbit kept police busy for several hours yesterday. The rabbit, 10 feet tall and weighing 300 pounds, disappeared in the early morning from its haunt in front of a Wilshire Boulevard store.

By eight o'clock the beast had strayed to Brentwood; he was finally apprehended beside the flagpole in the center of the Mount Saint Mary's College campus. He had done no damage. Later in the day the keepers of the plaster animal hauled him back to his place in an Easter display.

Police said they thought the rabbit's journeying was a fraternity stunt.
